

PAYMENT POLICY

1. Client`s account details and payment instructions are asked by Aviarefund.com for disbursement of the compensation from the airline for executing the terms of agreement between Aviarefund.com and the Client. Provided account details and payment instructions can be disclosed to the airline, a consumer protection body, a court if the disbursement of the compensation is possible only to the direct Client`s account.

2. Generally, requested Client`s bank account details include the following information:

1. Beneficiary name
2. Beneficiary address (for international transfers)
3. IBAN account number
4. Beneficiary`s bank name
5. SWIFT

3. Bank account details are managed by general rules of obtaining, processing and storage of personal data established by Terms and Conditions. In particular when the Client exercises his right to erasure his personal data which includes bank account details Aviarefund has a right to keep the Client`s account number for compliance with the requirements of the legislation in the field of audit and taxation.

Updated on 16 April 2018